

Issue # 7: Numerator Data - Trends and Event Studies 2023-2024 (weighted)

Ron Huang

October 5, 2025

This Write-up contains tables and plots for trend and event study analyses of the Numerator data. The original user-trip-item level data is transformed to user- month level data, with variables summarized at the monthly level for each user. SNAP and Non-SNAP treatment is determined by SNAP participation rate of each user over the periods of the data (>0.5 on SNAP; ≤ 0.5 Non-SNAP). We use the demographic weight in the data for analysis. The weight is relative to static panel cohort (each cohort constituted of households with the same 12-month static window). The sum of weights in each cohort equals to the count of total household. There are two cohorts for these analyses, one stars at Jan 2023 and one at Jan 2024; Not adjusted for inflation

1. Figures: Monthly average of ...

- level/log total spending winsorized
- level/log Food spending winsorized
- level/log Food on EBT winsorized
- level/log Soda spending winsorized
- level/log Soda on EBT winsorized
- prop. food spending
- prop. food on EBT
- prop. soda
- prop. soda on EBT
- level/log soda spending by SNAP/Non-SNAP
- level/log soda spending by state $\times$ SNAP

2. Figures: Event Studies

- level/log soda spending winsorized
- level/log soda spending by SNAP $\times$ post (conditional on treated states)
- level/log soda spending DDD

Number of Users	44,659	221,747	266,406

Notes: Prop. of food spending is calculated out of total spending. Prop. of FAH/FAFH spending and food on SNAP is calculated out of total food spending. Prop. of FAH/FAFH on SNAP is calculated out of total SNAP spending. Means are calculated by averaging users' monthly spending/proportion, pooled over time and users. No winsorization. EBT-related outcomes are conditional on households on SNAP.
